REPORT—FACULTY AND STAFF WORKSHOP ON ICT IN EDUCATION

Date: 07/11/2019

In view of improving the faculty and staff understanding of the potentials of using ICT in education, the Symbiosis Centre for Media & Communication, Pune, Viman Nagar Campus, organized a day-long ICT workshop for its faculty and staff on 7 November 2019, conducted by Dr. Ashok Kumar, former Professor of Bangalore University and an expert in television production.

Dr. Ashok Kumar first presented the current possibilities of ICT in higher education. He then spoke of the new possibilities in the horizon. He then focused on the challenges he faced in implementing ICT during his time as a university administrator. Finally, he initiated a long discussion session with the faculty and the staff on how they are currently utilizing ICT capabilities. He gave valuable suggestions on how to improve the ICT infrastructure in SCMC, Pune.

The training ended with the honourable Director, Dr. Sreeram Gopalkrishnan, thanking Dr. Ashok Kumar for the rigorously structured workshop and the faculty and staff for their patience and effort.
